

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The China took 151 Chinese and 144 Japanese from this port last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Porter Boyd will probably return on the Australia.

L. A. Thurston, accompanied by his wife and mother, is expected on the Australia Saturday.

Hon. Jacob Hardy, Circuit Judge of the Fifth District Court in the island of Kauai is in town.

Mr. H. F. Glade, the German Consul, visited the flagship Philadelphia yesterday morning.

When the registration office closed yesterday the total number of registered voters was 1027.

Auditor-General Ross states that his health is good and has nothing to do with his resignation from office.

C. Nestor Edison, the phonograph operator, left for the Orient last night, after spending a pleasant vacation here.

The Hawaiian Hardware Company has a notice this morning concerning the establishment of a coal station at Pearl Harbor.

Dr. E. A. Lundy left for Yokohama last night on the China. It is understood that he does not intend to return to this country.

The Rev. Thos. L. Gulick is giving a series of lectures on Hawaii, which are very highly spoken of by leading eastern papers. He is at present located in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Colonel George Macfarlane and Miss Albu were to be married previously to the departure of the Australia. They expected to go as far as Vancouver and take the steamer there for this city.

The Australia on her last trip up brought some early tomatoes and other vegetables to San Francisco. A late paper states that most of the shipment was sold soon after the steamer arrived.

A Japanese named Kwabara was arrested yesterday as a deserter from the U. S. S. Adams which left port on Sunday. He was a cook on board of the vessel and came ashore on last Friday. It is said that he has about $133 back pay coming to him which he was willing to forfeit if he could gain his freedom.

Lieut. Staunton, who accompanied Admiral Walker to this port, is the author of a picturesque and plentifully illustrated article in the current number of Harper's entitled "A Battle Ship in Action." This article is made the subject of a ferocious criticism in the N. Y. Nation, which professes to find it full of bloodthirsty and unchristian thoughts.

ROSS RESIGNS.

Mr. Laws, of Paia, May Take His Place.

George J. Ross, who has for several years held the position of Auditor General of the Hawaiian Islands, has sent in his resignation to the Provisional Government. The letter, in which he gives up his office, specifies no cause for the course taken, but it is believed that ill-health is the reason. Very likely the proposed reduction of salary from $400 to $300 a month may have something to do with the matter. In point of fact Mr. Ross has been drawing a higher salary than any of the Cabinet Ministers for a year past as, owing to a "kink" of some kind in the Appropriation bill, the Ministers have only received about $391 a month, instead of the statutory $400.

The position of Auditor has been offered to Mr. Henry Laws of Paia, Maui. Mr. Laws is well-known to business men of Honolulu as one of the most expert accountants on the islands, and in every way qualified for the position. There is little doubt that he will accept the position.

C. L. CARTER.

He Is Nominated as a Candidate for the Convention.

The Second District Club met last evening to elect a candidate for the coming election. There were two nominations—C. L. Carter and M. A. Gonzales. The former was elected by a vote of 81 to 68.

The Portuguese had turned out in force to elect their man, but could not accomplish that result. The total vote of the Portuguese Club was 66, and of the Second Ward Club 83. As Gonzales received 68 votes, it is evident, not only that the Portuguese were solid for him, but that two of the others voted their ticket.
